

One day seminar: Migrant women at the margin

Migrant women in Poland: discrimination on the labor market and cyberviolence. Ukrainian case.

Date: October 10th, 2019

Room: 201

1st Module:

Chair: prof. Magdalena Ratajczak, Deputy Director of Institute of International Studies, University of Wrocław

- 8.30 – 9.00 Arrivals and registration
- 9.00 – 9.15 Prof. Robert Wiszniowski, Dean of Faculty of Social Sciences,
Prof. Krzysztof Kociubiński, Director of Institute of International Studies, University of Wrocław
- 9.15 - 9.45 Prof. Paola Degani and prof. Paolo de Stefani, Dept. SPGI and Human Rights Centre, University of Padua
- 9.45 - 10.15 Prof. Magdalena Ratajczak, Dr Katarzyna Jędrzejczyk-Kuliniak, Institute of International Studies, University of Wrocław Discrimination on labor market and cyberviolence – introduction/general overview,
- 10.15 - 10.30 Manuela Pliżga-Jonarska, Wrocław Centre for Social Development
- 10.30 - 11.00 Discussion
- 11.00 - 11.30 Coffee break

2nd Module:

1) Discrimination on labor market

Chair: Dr Katarzyna Jędrzejczyk-Kuliniak, Institute of International Studies, University of Wrocław

- 11.30 - 11.45 Magdalena Nazimek, Nomada, Association for Multicultural Society Integration
- 11.45 - 12.00 Joanna Nyczak, Head of Wrocław Council of Women, Director of the Health and Social Service Department, Wrocław Municipal Office
- 12.00 - 12.15 Natalia Malyk, Centre for Immigrants Support in Gdańsk, The Board of Immigrants Gdańsk
- 12.15 - 12.30 Katarzyna Lubiniecka-Różyło, Association of Lower Silesian Women's Congress
- 12.30 - 13.00 Discussion
- 13.00 - 14.15 Lunch

2) Cyberviolence

Chair: Prof. Paola Degani, Dept. SPGI and Human Rights Centre, University of Padua

- 14.15 - 14.45 Dr Marek Troszyński, Head of Digital Centre Observatory, Collegium Civitas, President of Local Knowledge Foundation, Piotr Tyma, chair of Polish – Ukrainian Association, Report: Cyberviolence in Poland. The Ukrainian case.
- 14.45 - 15.00 Konrad Dulkowski, Centre for Monitoring of Racist and Xenophobic Behaviours
- 15.00 - 15.30 Insp. Barbara Lorenc – Żelisko, Human Rights Representative of the Province Police Commander in Wrocław
- 15.30 - 16.00 Discussion and closing remarks

